

DESTILLATE

Himbeergeist

No. 530

The ripe Palatinate raspberries are first macerated fresh in pure alcohol. This maceration allows the fine aroma of the raspberries to pass into the alcohol-fruit mixture. This mixture is then distilled in the still to produce a fruity spirit.

The raspberry spirit impresses with its incredibly intense raspberry aroma. Extremely fruity and very delicate with a slightly sweet fruitiness, it is also ideal for adding a "tipsy" note to fruity sorbets or desserts.
